8 OF THE BEST STORAGE PIECES FOR YOUR CHILD'S BEDROOM

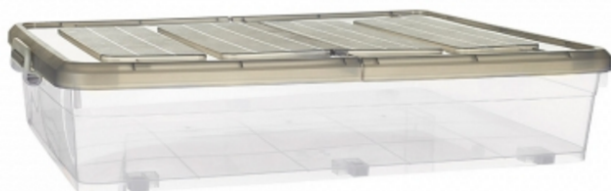

STORAGE PIECE	WHY IT WORKS
Cube storage unit 	Divided storage pieces are fantastic for separating categories and holding larger items. Boxes crates and baskets can fit perfectly in each cube to hide the visual clutter.
Large woven basket 	Large baskets are the perfect solution for storing (and hiding!) soft toy collections. They are also ideal for easy pack-up at the end of a play session - just throw everything in and call it a day!
Foldable fabric storage boxes  Collapsible Storage Cube - Scallop	Fabric storage boxes are nice and light so you (or your child) can slide them in and out for easy access. These boxes are great for concealing large collections of toys i.e. cars, musical instruments, blocks, small soft toys or dolls. They are not super-sturdy, so the contents should be fairly lightweight so the box can maintain its shape.

Wire baskets

If you're happy to have some items on display - such as books, dolls or special collections - then wire baskets look really cute and fun in a child's bedroom. Wire baskets come in a huge array of different colours and styles to tie in with your existing decor.

Rolling/under-bed storage

Storage containers with wheels are great for hiding items away. Puzzles-in-progress, lego creations or craft projects can be slid under the bed or into a cupboard until your child is ready to work on their masterpiece again!

Zippered/lidded storage

Generally, storage containers without lids are easier for you child to access their things and pack up easily. However, zipped or lidded storage can also come in handy for protecting items you may want to keep dust-free, or that are more precious.

Tiered/drawer storage unit

Storage units with drawers are useful for separating larger categories, such as craft or art supplies, dress-ups, trains, cars or even colour-coding the Lego collection.

Plastic tubs

Sometimes you need storage options that are easy to clean, and these tubs are perfect for holding art and craft supplies, or outdoor and sandpit toys. Clear or colourful plastic tubs come in a huge array of shapes and sizes, and are simple to empty and wipe out any mess.
